DESPITE RUMORS AND REPORTS

The Standard Oil Co. will Proceed with Appeal to the Highest Court.

New York, Nov. 23.—Reports, rumors and legal prophecies to the contrary, the Standard Oil company announced authoritatively today that it had no intention of seeking to procure an amendment to the Sherman anti-trust law, but will proceed with the appeal to the United States supreme court, from the decree of the United States circuit court at St. Paul. Until the supreme court has rendered a decision, the company will consider no other method of doing business than that now in force.

Mortimer F. Elliott, chief counsel is authority for the foregoing. He discussed the case with a representative of the Associated Press today, after a conference with William G. Rockefeller and John D. Archibald.

"It seems highly improbable to me that there ever will be a foreign holding company organized, as you tell me has been suggested," said Mr. Elliott. "The complexity of control exercised by the several states sets too many difficulties in the way."

"Such comment on the case as I have seen misses the fact that the Standard Oil company is not a holding company pure and simple, as was the Northern Securities company. For instance, it owns outright at Bayonne, N. J., the largest refinery in the world. There is nothing in the decree to prevent the company from continuing to do business, although I admit that it makes doing business more cumbersome."

"Although the decree enjoins the Standard Oil company from voting its shareholdings in subsidiary companies, or receiving dividends from them, there is no reason why the individual holders among whom such shares would be divided under the decree should not elect their own officers in the subsidiary companies and receive their own dividends from those companies. A proxy system among our five thousand shareholders would certainly be no more unmanageable than the same system as now used by railroad and industrial companies with say 50,000 shareholders."

"In brief, there is no cause for the market to fear a forced liquidation of the securities the Standard Oil company now holds. I disagree with the gentlemen who think a redistribution is necessary, other than of the sort I outlined in my first statement."

Mr. Elliott in that statement said he understood the court to order that the Standard Oil holdings in subsidiary companies be apportioned among Standard Oil share owners in ratio to their holdings in the present company. An executive officer of the company said today that no alarm was felt over the possibility of the criminal prosecution under section 11 of the Sherman act, should the present decree in equity be upheld in the supreme court.

Can Walk Across the Quinebaug River
Some of the mills are still losing a few hours a week because of insufficient water to run the plants. The Quinebaug river is so low at a point on the Wheaton farm below Putnam that a person could walk across the gravelly bed and not wet above his shoe tops.

Thanksgiving Dinners for the Poor.
Various agencies have been at work for the past few days arranging that good dinners be served to the poor of the city on Thanksgiving day. Few persons whose poverty is known of will pass the day for returning thanks for blessing without the enjoyment of a good dinner.

Holiday Observance.
Tomorrow will be observed as a general holiday in Putnam and after the noon hour all business will be practically suspended. The mills and factories will close tonight and many of the operatives will spend Thanksgiving with friends out of town.

Union Thanksgiving Service.
The union Thanksgiving service will be held this year in the Baptist church. Rev. E. W. Belcher of the Methodist church will preach the sermon.

Cargill council, K. of C., will confer degrees at a meeting to be held tomorrow (Thursday) evening.

F. S. Leonard Bids in Grain Elevator at $4,900—Orzechowski Brothers Held in $2,000 Bonds—Mrs. Mary R. Brown's Funeral.

The Jewett City grain elevator was sold at public auction at ten o'clock Tuesday morning by George E. Batchelder of Norwich, by order of the superior court as the result of a foreclosure brought by F. S. Leonard, who held a mortgage against the Metropolitan Real Estate Improvement Co. of New York.

The property sold was that included in the sale made by F. S. Leonard to George H. Lowerre, March 10, 1906. The property has been occupied for the past few years by George Labonne.

Village Club's Interesting Meeting—Rev. M. H. May Ordained Twenty-Five Years—Auction—Farm Sold to Norwich Man.
The Village club held its weekly meeting Monday night in the Cragin Memorial library. Mrs. Bigelow read a paper on The Monastic Orders and Their Influence on the Art and Literature of Italy. Miss Avery's subject was The Italian Lakes. The object of the club is the study of subjects pertaining to history, travel, art and economics. The officers elected at the last meeting are: Rev. M. H. May, president; Miss Bigelow, vice president; Mrs. E. S. Day, secretary; Miss Grimshaw, treasurer;

Mr. Vernon lodge, No. 75, F. and A. M. Arthur M. Brown, master, worked in the Master Mason's degree at a special communication Tuesday evening. At the close of labor a fine lunch was served by the chef of the order, E. H. Chapman.

Held in $2,000 Bonds Each.
Choppin Orzechowski and Roh Orzechowski were presented in the town court Tuesday morning on the charge of assault with intent to kill and slay. They pleaded guilty and each was bound over to the January term of the criminal superior court in $2,000 bonds each. They were unable to furnish bonds and were to jail. They are accused of assault on John Oliniski at a Polish festivity on Factory Hill Saturday night.

Oliniski was seriously cut with a knife or knives and bruised with a heavy stake. The result of his injury is not determinable yet.

FUNERAL.
Mrs. Mary R. Brown.

The funeral services of Mrs. Mary R. Brown, mother of Postmaster W. H. Brown of this place, were held Tuesday morning at the home of her son on Mathewson street at nine o'clock, prayer being offered by the Rev. E. W. Potter, pastor of the Baptist church. The bearers were Deacon John Eccleston, Deacon William H. Johnson, George A. Haskell and John E. Green.

The service was continued at the Baptist church in Packerville, of which the deceased was probably the oldest member, she having united with it over fifty years ago. The sermon, which was full of consolation and good teaching along the line of what heaven will be for the Christian, was by the pastor, the Rev. J. W. Higgins. His text was the 11th verse of the XVIII Psalm, Thou wilt show me the path of life: in thy presence is fullness of joy; at thy right hand are pleasures forever more.

He was assisted in the service by the Rev. E. W. Potter. A quartette, Mrs. George Sparks, Miss Ida I. Foster, B. R. Gardner and E. H. Hiscox, sang two of Mrs. Brown's best-loved hymns. Safe in the Arms of Jesus and Shall We Meet Beyond the River? The bearers at Packerville were Deacon G. A. Tillinghast, C. J. Gamble, Robert Flower and Caleb T. Bishop.

Among those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. William F. Kelley of Killingly and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Kelley of Washington, D. C. The many beautiful flowers were from the family and Mrs. Joseph Brown and family, teachers of Riverside school, India, and society, King's Daughters, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Bothwell, Mrs. Martha Bothwell, Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Crumb, Mrs. Edgar A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Burdick, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bennett, Rev. J. W. Payne, Mrs. M. E. Wilson, Mrs. A. E. Ray, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Haskell, Baptist church.

Thank Offering Meeting.
The regular thank offering meeting of the missionary society of the Congregational church was held at Mrs. Jane Pantons' on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. G. W. Robinson, the president, presided. Mrs. Pantons reported concerning a doll which this society has sent to Miss Howland at Thomasville, Ga. The subject of the report was From Darkness to Light. Mrs. H. N. Wheelock read an introduction to the subject from a leading southern paper. Mrs. F. E. Robinson read an article entitled The Savage, and Mrs. Pantons told of the race traits.

Mrs. H. B. Steyer told of Slavery and Mrs. M. C. Grant of the family life of the negroes. Mrs. W. H. Gane read a report of the quarterly meeting recently held at Plainfield and also told a Thanksgiving story. Considerable was said about the money which has been given to stamp out the diseases of the south.

News in General.
Rev. E. W. Potter and daughter, May Potter, go to New Haven today, called there on account of the critical condition of Mr. Potter's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Taft and daughter Hazel of Woonsocket were recent guests at Mrs. Joseph Brown's, making the trip by automobile. Miss Marian Johnson enjoyed the return trip with them.

Mrs. T. M. Crumb went to New London on Tuesday to spend Thanksgiving with her brother.

Still the dandelions come. Miss Florence McLaughlin found two on Tuesday.

Miss Florence Willcox of Smith college arrived home Tuesday evening for the Thanksgiving recess.
